Your Church – Imagine the possibilities

Come for the weekend, or come for a day — Camp Clayton provides a comfortable, relaxed atmosphere and great food.

crèche, kids & youth programs will run during the keynote addresses and electives, with teams from St James' New Town, Wellspring Anglican and St John's Launceston.

bookshop & resources

a great opportunity to catch up on some of the latest resources for ministry with a special focus on elective topics.

a.o. coffee & live music throw in your clarinet/trumpet/guitar/tambourine/etc and join Greg Jones (BCA) and Ray Phillips on Saturday night for some relaxed music making and great coffee.

tasmanian ministry certificate launch

we will be launching the new Tasmanian Ministry Certificate, an integrated program of theological study and ministry skills formation for church leadership in the diocese, especially ministry teams and lay preachers.

special guest—Gary Nelson

Gary is currently the Director of External Studies at Moore College, Sydney. He trained as a maths teacher, and spent a few years as a missionary teacher in Papua New Guinea. He has also ministered in three very different parishes, and his research area is faith development / Christian growth. He is married to Christine, with 3 sons—one of whom was married this year. His interests include reading and cricket.

keynote speaker—Jill McCoy

Jill is an experienced Bible teacher with a passion for enabling men and women to grow in their knowledge of God. She has a particular interest in helping people apply the Bible and theology in the context of their daily lives. After teaching at Ridley Melbourne Mission and Ministry College for many years, she moved to Tasmania last year to be Ministry Enabler for the Parishes of the West Coast, Circular Head, Penguin and Sheffield. Her interests include people, contemporary society and knitting.
